DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-90,155 drawn to method of identifying a mutant nucleic acid, classified in class 435, subclass 91.2.
 - II. Claims 98-154 , drawn to endonuclease, classified in class 530, subclass 350.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the endonuclease may be used in a plurality of different methods such as mutagenesis and cloning.

The endonuclease mutant products used in each method differ in structure and function and therefore patentably distinct. Applicant is further required to select one endonuclease mutant upon election of a Group. Upon applicant's selection of a single invention, the examination will proceed only in so far as it pertains to the selected subject matter. Note this is not an election of species.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for each Group is not required for the other Groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
